THE LATIN AMERICAN CULTURAL CENTER (LACC)

An outreach initiative of The Latin American Studies Association (LASA) is proud to present

MEXICAN MASKS

Symbols, Celebrations, Satire, and Safety

Masks have been used in Mexico for thousands of years to portray objects and themes as varied as plants and animals; old and young; ethnic, political, economic, and social differences; and especially the fantastical and supernatural.

Be among the first to see this beautiful exhibit, which explores the history of masks in Mexico—from their uses in colorful dances and ceremonies to their adoption in the wrestling arena and as creative representations of the Covid-19 pandemic.
